

Pine Bluff / Jefferson County Library System Gaming Policy

The Pine Bluff / Jefferson County Library offers a variety of games and gaming equipment for the enjoyment of library patrons.

Patrons wishing to use the gaming equipment must act in accordance with the existing library policies as well as the additional policies listed here. Failure to comply will result in a loss of gaming privileges.

The Pine Bluff / Jefferson County Library is not responsible for any loss or damage suffered by the patron's use of the library's gaming system(s).

By using the library's gaming equipment the patron is agreeing to abide by the Gaming Rules which are as follows:

Gaming Rules

Children under the age of 10 must be accompanied by an adult to use the gaming equipment. (Adults can play games with their child(ren) if they'd like.)

Patrons will not attempt to disconnect, remove, or otherwise alter the arrangement of equipment in the gaming area. Anyone tampering with equipment in any manner will result in the loss of gaming privileges for the day.

Malfunction or defects in the equipment or system should be reported immediately to staff.

A fine may be charged to a user's library account for broken, damaged, or dysfunctional equipment caused by patron misuse.

Gaming available is limited and may not be available at all times the library is open. Gaming time limits are at the sole discretion of library staff.

Patrons may only use the gaming equipment provided by the library. Memory cards, or extra accessories not provided by the library, will not be allowed.

Disruptive behavior, including foul language, will result in the patron's loss of gaming privileges for a length of time determined by the library staff member.

Patrons who do not treat library property with care and/or repeatedly violate Gaming Rules may have their gaming and library privileges revoked.

Patrons must respect other users of the library by keeping their volume low and by not using vulgar or inappropriate language.

Revocation of gaming and library privileges are at the sole discretion of library staff members.
